BARTHOLDT MAY BE THE CHOICE

Said to Have Been Selected as Candidate for Mayor.

SECRET CAUCUS AT CITY HALL

VOTE SAID TO BE BARTHOLDT, 10;
WALBRIDGE, 2; ZACHRITZ, 2.

George W. Parker, Former Railroad President, Is Said to Be in Training for the Mayoralty Contest.

A caucus of Republican leaders was held Tuesday night in the office of Mayor Ziegelnich to agree upon a candidate for Mayor.

According to one who was present, the choice of a majority of the gathering was Congressman Richard Bartholdt, of the Tenth district, who will, therefore, receive the support of some of the most powerful interests in the party at the primaries March 5.

The relative strength of the leading candidates mentioned in the caucus, according to information obtained by the Post-Dispatch Wednesday morning, was: Bartholdt, 10; Walbridge, 2; Zachritz, 2.

Major Henry Ziegelnich and prominent members of the Republican city central committee were present at the caucus, as well as some of the principal city and federal office holders. Major Ziegelnich is said to have voted for Bartholdt in preference to his own supposed candidate, Zachritz.

Parker May Be in Field.

Members of the city committee and party leaders generally, who did not attend the caucus, were disposed to doubt that definite action had been taken.

"I know the caucus was held," said one of them to the Post-Dispatch Wednesday morning, "but in my opinion the field is still open, with Walbridge, Bartholdt, Zachritz and perhaps Jay, under consideration."

George W. Parker, former president of the Cairo Short Line, is a late entry in the race. He is a member of the St. Louis Republican Club and prominent in that organization.

"While the men I have mentioned are under consideration, it is not likely that all three of them will be chosen. The final choice will be made between them by Friday morning, and all except favored ones will drop out; that is, except Zachritz, who will be left with the two boys with their tutor, O. B. Huntington, who had breakfasted by 9 o'clock and started for the Missouri Pacific general offices in the Equitable building.

It is somewhat cold here, and we will make for the South as rapidly as possible, under the circumstances. I expect to spend several days in St. Louis on my return, and will get back in time for the fair.

Kingdon and Jay are bright and well-mannered children, and the questions they ask betoken an inquiring mind. They are fond of books, and have two little girls, Marjorie and ViMara, but Mr. and Mrs. Gould decided, at the last moment, to leave the boys with their grandmother and baby brother, Jay Jr.

The father thinks it will be an educational trip for them and the lads are not averse to acquiring knowledge.

WOMEN OF THE UNITED STATES

Regard Peruna as Their Shield Against Catarrh, Coughs, Colds, Grip and Catarrhal Diseases.

MRS. BELVA A. LOCKWOOD, LATE CANDIDATE FOR THE PRESIDENCY.

Mrs. Belva Lockwood, the eminent barrister of Washington, D. C., is the only woman who has ever been a candidate for the Presidency of the United States. As the pioneer of her sex in the legal profession she has gathered fame and fortune. In a letter to The Peruna Medicine Company, she says:

"I have used your Peruna both for myself and my mother, Mrs. Hannah J. Bennett, now in her 88th year, and I find it an invaluable remedy for cold, catarrh, hay fever and kindred diseases; also a good tonic for feeble and old people, for those run down, and with nerves unstrung."—Belva A. Lockwood.

Mrs. T. Pelton.

Mrs. T. Pelton, 562 St. Anthony avenue, St. Paul, Minn., writes:

"Peruna has done wonders for me. It has cured my headache and palpitation of the heart; has relieved my whole system. I cheerfully commend it to all sufferers afflicted with catarrh. My mother is never without Peruna. When one is tired and generally out of sorts, if Peruna is taken it immediately removes that tired feeling."

Peruna cures catarrh by removing the cause, inflamed mucous membranes.

Dr. Hartman, the compounding of Peruna, once said, in a lecture to women:

"A great number of women consult me every year. I often have occasion to say to these patients, 'I fear you have catarrh, madam.' They will generally reply, 'Oh, no, I never had catarrh. My nose is perfectly clear, and my breath is not bad. I am not troubled with spitting, or any other disagreeable symptoms of catarrh.'

My dear madam, you have catarrh all the same. Catarrh is not always located in the head. You may have catarrh of the lungs, or stomach, or liver, or kidneys, and especially you may have catarrh of the pelvic organs."

The doctor went on to say: "I have been preaching this doctrine for the last forty years, but there are a vast multitude of women who have never heard it yet. Catarrh may attack any organ of the body, and is especially liable to catarrh of the pelvic organs. There are one hundred cases of catarrh of the head. Most people think, because they have not catarrh of the head they have no catarrh at all. This is a great mistake, and is the cause of many cases of sickness and death."

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, president of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

open communication with it would be necessary. Great Britain might possibly send ships through it, but even that is doubtful. The most that could be gained by doing so is a saving of time. Under some circumstances this might be an important matter. But the naval preponderance of Great Britain is such that it would be of less importance to her than to us.

"It is believed, in consideration of the freedom of the canal, extended by the United States, to allow ships of all nations, those nations would agree to an arrangement by which the region of the canal and large areas of the Pacific coast would be exempted from the operations of war. The larger these areas of neutrality the better. Such a sum and agreement be violated, and nothing else could destroy the United States could destroy the canal if necessary, so as to render it impossible for any nation to use it. The United States would wish to use the canal for any other than peaceful purposes of commerce, and as she probably would have no enemies for whom it in any other, it is not seen why such an agreement might not be made."

STARS AT A MUSICALE.

Miss Mrs. and Mr. Sheehan Sing at Mrs. Philip Medart's.

An enjoyable musicale was given Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Philip Medart at their home, 1729 Missouri avenue. Several local musicians took part, but the special attractions were Miss Maud Lillian Berri and Joseph F. Sheehan of the Castle Square Opera Co. Joseph A. Bush had charge of the musical arrangements.

The house was decorated in southern style, intertwined with pink roses, the curtains being backed with masses of roses. The musical was a grand affair, the entire stage end of which was an arch arranged for the singers. This was curtained and covered with a heavy Persian silk, trimmed with point lace, the skirt in train and the courage cut low in square effect, with high Medici collar at the back.

Wifebeater Wept in Vain.

Lawrence Hill, wifebeater, was a whining defendant in the city's law office court. When Judge Wood remanded him to his wife. His wife appeared in court with a discolored eye. Hill begged his wife to release him, but she firmly refused.

Mr. and Mrs. Medart were in receiving their friends by Mr. Bush. Mrs. Bush was going to make a grand presentation to the singer, the skirt in train and the courage cut low in square effect, with high Medici collar at the back.

"An attorney came to her office to represent the United States, presupposing that passage of it, through it and from it, is assured. But she said, 'I am not in a case of war with a strong naval power, and our main reliance is a strong naval force. If the case goes to trial, we will be beaten.' The United States while a powerful hostile force dominated the Caribbean Sea. The nation that has the strongest naval force will, in time of war, control passage through the canal, no matter which one has possession."

"For a military standpoint the canal is valuable, but it is not a case of war. It does not serve as a good base of operations in a war with a strong naval power. No prudent naval commander would risk his ship in Lake Nicaragua or Lake Battia to spring out on the foe in either ocean, as has some time been suggested. The canal would not be necessary. If strong, the dangers of being bottled up are too great. The canal would be a hindrance to the canal were neutral. It would not then be in the prize of war. Neither the maintenance of an army to protect it nor of a fleet to keep it safe is possible."

MODERN JEAN VALJEAN SUFFERING FOR PETTY THEFT IS PRISONER COLLINS

Nerved Himself With Drink and Stole a Pair of Shoes Which He Says
He Had to Have to Perform the Work He Had Obtained.

JOHN COLLINS.
Who was thought to be an old offender, but says want drove him to theft.

BY THE COMPANY.

Statement of Manager Schaefferer. When Collins was arrested he was drunk. I directed Captain Murphy to take him to Carr Street Station until I could think over the case. Later the officer returned and said Collins had been identified as an old offender. But for this identification I probably should not have decided to prosecute. In fact, it was the motive which caused me to prosecute him. I checked him to see if he was a thief and swear to a petit larceny warrant. If upon a thorough investigation of the case it shall become evident that the man was really an unfortunate and needed the shoes and that this is his first offense, I shall certainly not prosecute him.

"If the police say he is an old offender, I shall prosecute him. It was his announcement given to his clerks who were directed to proceed to the Carr Street Station.

The chance identification at the Carr Street Station will not stand. According to him, it was accepted as true by the station's officers and would probably have been presented against him at his trial but for a recent amendment to the law which causes the station to carefully examine for the purpose of ascertaining the truth. The examination showed that Collins had never been arrested before.

Does Not Look Like a Thief.

Collins does not look like a common thief. Although he is dressed in rags and has not been shaved for several days, he has none of the marks of vagrancy. His face is not bloated with drink and his manner is that of a man who has been accustomed to work for his living.

"Three weeks ago I came to St. Louis from Union, Mo., and I had been working at a lumber camp to earn my bread. I who lived at 1016 Market street. I had been here since looking for work, but have not found any.

"When I learned Saturday I could get work at Union again I got drunk and stole the shoes because I had to have them on and had to drink. I paid each 5 cents—but I'm not a regular drinker, and that made me tight. Why did I get drunk? Well, you see a fellow who has never done anything wrong has got to do something against them. On the other hand, I always insist on the prosecution of old offenders."

Letters and telegrams daily. She spends the greater part of her time in writing. She has received orders for articles from men in all parts of the country, spending most of her time preparing them. She receives $25 for one and has already received $25 for another. The articles will be about 100 words long.

Mrs. Nation's attorneys presented a motion in the District Court to quash the indictment, and the grand jury voted to drop the charge of assault with intent to commit a felony. The identification was examined by the building injured by her recent raid harbored a nuisance and that his silence ought to be abated.

In denying the motion, U. S. D. M. Dale ruled that it makes no difference whether property destroyed is used for a saloon or not.

Under the ruling the only point at issue is whether the accused broke the glass windows all around in committing the robbery.

The complaint in one case is made by the owner of the building, who was not the proprietor of the saloon.

It frequently happens that men and women are arrested here for attempting to steal shoes. My custom is to talk to the offender. If my eyes are unfortunate and that it is his first offense, I instruct the police to release him. I make it a rule never to prosecute first offenders unless they are persistent.

My custom is to talk to the offender and I had to have him arrested and tried.

BETTER THAN YEARS OF DOCTORING.

Only Paine's Celery Compound Did Her Any Lasting Good.

It can be truthfully said of no other remedy in the world what is so often said of Paine's celery compound, that in no single instance has it failed to benefit, and benefit permanently — and there's the point that no sufferer should lose sight of.

The whole stock-in-trade of the ordinary, plausible-sounding, but wholly irresponsible remedies is to bring about the appearance of health, to cover up symptoms and to stave off breakdowns, making the permanent cure all the more difficult.

Other remedies, because they can effect no lasting cure, do harm.

The same words that fairly and accurately describe Paine's celery compound, that every day proves its worth, are boldly used to exploit concoctions that can by no possibility do anything but harm. More brains and ingenuity is expended on the label and wrapper than on what is put into the bottles. Persons who try this remedy and that, in the foolish hope that they may hit on the right one by chance, and at any rate it can do them no harm, should know that they are doing their system incalculable mischief and putting off the day of complete recovery by such experimenting.

Paine's celery compound must not be judged by the standard of any of these superficial medicines. It is a great, responsible, scientific discovery, singularly unlike any remedial agent that ever aimed to effect a similar purpose—to make people well. It is not an ordinary remedy. The results from its use have been so extraordinary and so gratifying that busy men and women have gone out of their way to send letters of thanks and to allow their names to vouch for every statement they have made in praise of it.

ANOTHER PAPER TRUST.

Canadian Mills Will Consolidate With $2,500,000 Capital.

MONTREAL, Can., Feb. 20.—There are prospects of great activity in pulp and paper manufacturing in Canada during the coming season. The smaller companies in the province of Quebec and eastern Ontario are to be amalgamated into one large company. The Consolidated Pulp and Paper Co. of Toronto, Limited, incorporated under Ontario regulations, will also be incorporated into the new company with the Dominion government, with a capital of $2,500,000, with the power to increase it to $5,000,000.

The properties to be consolidated immediately are those at Newburg and Stratford, Ontario, and the lumber mills at Lorette Lake, St. John, and the Indian Lorette Mills, near this city. On the Metabetchouan property near Grand Wood pulp mill, with a capacity of 100 tons per day, a small pulp mill with a capacity of 60 tons per day will be erected. The Lorette mills will also be taken over.

The provincial directors of the company are John M. Poole, Toronto, president; W. H. MacKay, Toronto; E. L. Young, George H. Smith, Montreal, Ont., and J. H. Charles, Perth, Ont.

MISS NETHERSOLE DEPARTS.

Will Go Home to England to Bear a Surgical Operation.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Miss Olga Nethersole has determined suddenly to sail for Europe this morning on the Majestic, and will undergo, at her own home in London, the surgical operation, which her physicians have decided is necessary. Miss Nethersole's decision was made hurriedly, after a consultation with two physicians, Drs. Wylie and Butt, and with her legal council.

RELIEF BILL WAS PASSED.

Council Provided Temporary Funds for City's Needs.

Through a measure passed Tuesday night by the City Council, certain municipal departments which had reached or were approaching the end of their appropriations allowed them, will be able to struggle through the fiscal year.

A total of $100,000 is appropriated in the bill and this sum is made up by tax collections over the comptroller's estimate.

The lighting of public buildings is provided for with an appropriation of $24,000.

More money is given supplemental appropriations for the purpose of paying their keepers, some of whom have not drawn a cent from the city since last October.

The city administration is also remembered to an extent which will enable them to get along for a time.

THE BRIDGE OVER NIAGARA.

Canadian Promoters Ask for Five Years Time.

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 20.—A petition from Richard Harcourt, Dalesel Cooper of Welland, Alonzo C. Mather of Chicago, and John Flett of Toronto has been presented to the Canadian Parliament for an extension of five years of the time allowed them for building a bridge over Niagara river at Buffalo.

A railroad man, who was killed in a wreck on the Kansas City division of the Frisco in September, 1898, and the suit was brought to recover the fourth quarterly installment claimed to be due on the certificate held by the deceased at the time of his death. The certificate was for $2000, to be paid in four installments within five years, in quarterly installments of $500. The company sought to relieve itself from the full payment of the fourth installment by a bond said to have been given by the supreme trustee of the order, after the issue of the certificate, and in apparent conflict with the certificate, which limited the beneficial payment to the amount collected in the same class, less the expense of collection. In accordance with that theory, the company refused to make the full payment of the fourth installment the sum of $50. That amount was refused and was brought for $100, the full amount claimed, and allowed by Judge Neville.

FATERNAL ORDER LOST.

Required by Court to Pay a Contested Claim to a Widow.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Feb. 20.—In the case of Dore E. B. Laker against the Royal Fraternal Union of St. Louis, the defendant was required to continue its payments under the insurance contract made with the plaintiff's husband before his death.

The widow is the widow of J. F. Laker, a railroad man, who was killed in a wreck on the Kansas City division of the Frisco in September, 1898, and the suit was brought to recover the fourth quarterly installment claimed to be due on the certificate held by the deceased at the time of his death. The certificate was for $2000, to be paid in four installments within five years, in quarterly installments of $500.

COULD NOT SEE FOND PARENTS

Charles Gallagher Tried in Vain for a Furlough.

WAS ON HIS WAY TO MANILA

DUTY HELD HIM WHILE RELATIVES AWAITED HIS COMING.

Left Pathetic Note at Union Station Telling His Family at Fern Ridge Why He Did Not See Them.

INFORMATION BUREAU,
UNION STATION.
Please inform my parents in Fern Ridge, St. Louis County, that I passed away today on the way to San Francisco. Then I tried to get a furlough but could not. We are ordered to Manila.
CHARLES GALLAGHER,
Co. B, Tenth Infantry.

Behind the brief note left at the information bureau at Union Station Tuesday lies the story of a soldier's futile efforts to visit "folks at home" after an absence of three years.

Charles Gallagher, the soldier, enlisted in the Tenth Infantry before it sailed for Cuba at the close of the Spanish-American war. This was in 1898, nearly three years ago. Since then he has been constantly with his company, doing monotonous guard duty in Cuba, with nothing to occupy his mind for hours at a time but thoughts of home and the pleasure of re-tuning with him that the route across the country to St. Louis and therefore he would have no trouble in getting a few days off and joining his regiment here. He was told that this was the case.

Great preparations were made at Fern Ridge to receive him. The regiment started once for Manila.

The regiment arrived in Washington a week ago and was ordered to proceed immediately to San Francisco and embark for Manila. There was to be no time for delay. And Gallagher, all confident, asked for leave of absence, he was told that no leaves were to be granted and that he must stay with the regiment.

He did not have time even to send word to his parents of the shattering of his plans. The regiment started at once for San Francisco.

Tuesday afternoon it arrived in St. Louis. At Fern Ridge, Gallagher's home, was only a few miles away, but he might as well have been in China.

While they awaited the son's coming at home, he lounged about Union Station searching for someone he knew by whom he might send them a message. He saw a man in uniform, and tried to speak to him, but it occurred to him to write the note and leave it at the Information Bureau.

COST OF KEEPING A KING

Edward VII Will Have More Money to Spend Than His Mother, the Late Queen.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—While the current report is that the aggregate sum of the British civil list will not be changed in the new reign is probably correct, it does not follow that the court of Edward VII will not have more money to spend than Queen Victoria's court. The civil list is capable of considerable manipulation.

Queen Victoria's had a smaller aggregate than King William IV, but the civil list was reduced from various charges and she had a larger amount available for the maintenance of the royal household.

The expenses for the King's benefit, without a larger appropriation for the general expenses of the civil list, will be increased and there will not be any opposition by the Commons to the proposal for her benefit.

It is understood that the Duke of Cornwall will be equal in amount to those received by his father as Prince of Wales.

The officer in command at Wonderfontain, the nearest post on the railway to the Transvaal, has been promoted to major, he has no news of Smith-Dorrien, who has about 2500 men under him. Lord Kitchener has returned to Pretoria, leaving the command to De Wet.

De Wet has completely fooled Kitchener. He thought he had the Boer general surrounded. De Wet, however, was found out and was then captured and is wondering now where De Wet will be heard from next.

De Wet is upon Cape Town, while appearing impossible at this distance, is said to be actually feared.

It is reported yesterday that De Wet is moving north and is now west of Cape Town, but will probably double back to the southwest, where troops are awaiting to catch him.

BOERS MAY HAVE TRAPPED HIM

Kitchener Has Abandoned De Wet, the Wily, and a Raid on Cape Town Is One of the Possibilities.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—Grave anxiety is felt for the safety of Smith-Dorrien's column, which has not been heard from since Feb. 6, when it lost 24 killed and 46 wounded in a heavy engagement with Commandant Botha at Bothwell.

The officer in command at Wonderfontain, the nearest post on the railway to the Transvaal, has been promoted to major, he has no news of Smith-Dorrien, who has about 2500 men under him. Lord Kitchener has returned to Pretoria, leaving the command to De Wet.

De Wet has completely fooled Kitchener. He thought he had the Boer general surrounded. De Wet, however, was found out and was then captured and is wondering now where De Wet will be heard from next.

De Wet is upon Cape Town, while appearing impossible at this distance, is said to be actually feared.

It is reported yesterday that De Wet is moving north and is now west of Cape Town, but will probably double back to the southwest, where troops are awaiting to catch him.

The officer in command at Wonderfontain, the nearest post on the railway to the Transvaal, has been promoted to major, he has no news of Smith-Dorrien, who has about 2500 men under him. Lord Kitchener has returned to Pretoria, leaving the command to De Wet.
